Battle Participation General Requirements

FUN! Teams representing over fifty Dayton-area businesses compete in 15 co-ed sporting events over the course of eight days. Teams gain points in each event based on their overall placement versus other businesses. The events range from volleyball to miniature golf to track sprint.

There's something for everyone!

What Are The Requirements Of A Company Wanting To Participate?

- All participants must be on the company's payroll.
- The minimum team size is 8 and must include at least 4 men and 4 women due to the co-ed nature of all events.
- The maximum team size is 24. The maximum number of the same gender is 16.
- Companies with less than 75 Dayton-based employees can include spouses of employees as team members.
- All participants must be at least 19 years old.
- The entry fee for participating companies is $375.00.

Special Olympics Fund Raising

BATTLE BUCKS is the fund raising portion of the Battle of the Businesses. The Battle is the number one fundraiser for the Dayton Chapter of Special Olympics. In the last three years, the Battle of the Businesses, on behalf of the participating companies, has donated to Special Olympics an average of $60,000 yearly.

The $375 entry fee paid by each team goes to the running of the Battle, including team T-shirts, equipment, facility rental, etc. Everyone involved volunteers his or her time.

To thank the participants in the Battle Bucks campaign, raffle prizes will be available to all Battle Bucks participants. The chances to win the raffle prizes will increase in proportion to the amount raised by each participant.
